This faux wood flooring may be convincing, but U-color is actually heavy-duty porcelain tiles, cold glazed to minimize environmental impact yet maximize brilliant, saturated color. And virtually any hue is possible, so finding yours isn't hard. The 3-by-12-inch Italian-made tiles are $\frac{3}{8}$ inch thick, with a natural or rectified edge. Each is perfectly unique, varying slightly in shade and texture, with a patina that develops over time—just as the real thing does. 39-0536-920039; 41zero42.com. circle 615 ➔
